Paratroopers Join Battle In Luzon Valley

Enter Fight To Exterminate 20,000 Japs Caught In Pocket By Yanks

GUERRILLAS ARE BEING RELIEVED

By LEE VAN ALTA
U.S. Staff Correspondent

MANILA, June 25.—Crack American paratroopers dropped into a battle of extermination fought today against some 20,000 Japs pocketed in Luzon's Cagayan valley.

Swooping to earth at Aparri, northern gateway to the valley, elements of the 11th Airborne Division moved southward from that vital port at the northern tip of the Philippine capital island. The town of Aparri was seized several days earlier by a combined Yank-Filipino force in a surprise enveloping maneuver from the west.

Relieve Guerrillas

As the paratroopers and the regular ground troops pushed southward into the valley, miles to the south, relief was in sight for gallant Filipino guerrillas fighting against continuous Jap counterattacks at Tuguegarao. Moving toward the defeated garrison from the south was another column of the 37th Infantry division, which gained nine miles and drove within nine miles of Tuguegarao.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that the 11th Airborne troops began reinforcing the American units already guarding

Hundreds Make Tour Of Aluminum Plant

New Castle citizens—some 4000 of them—got a first hand view of an aluminum forging plant Sunday, when the New Castle plant of the Aluminum Company of America held a "Family Day." Families of the employees, their friends, business and professional men and women of the city were guests at the plant, saw every departmental operation and came away impressed both with the size and the efficiency of the plant.

For the "Family Day" the weatherman selected a day right out of the top drawer. Clear and warm, designed especially for such purposes. The guests checked in at the main gate and after registering started on a tour that took about an hour and a half to complete. The tours were under the direction of Harry C. Slagle, works manager in general charge of the day.

Throughout the plant were stationed employees who explained the various processes through which aluminum rods go before they come out in a thousand different shapes and parts.

Troops Engaging In Manhunt On Okinawa Island

Scattered Remnants Of Defeated Enemy Garrison Are Being Hunted Down

NEARLY 102,000 JAPS KILLED IN BATTLE

By JOHN R. HENRY

GUAM, June 25.—American Tenth Army troops, which captured nearly 110,000 Japs in the battle for Okinawa, waged a relentless manhunt today on that island, seeking scattered remnants of the defeated enemy garrison.

The Japanese high command in a special communique broadcast by the Domei agency, admitted that the strategic island which stands as a stepping-stone to China and Japan was lost to the Americans.

According to an announcement by Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, a total of 101,833 dead Japs already have been counted on the island and another 7902 taken prisoner. The bag of captives, greatest of the Pacific war, included 2689 Nip labor troops.

Though all their main pockets of resistance have been wiped out, a

E Bond Sales Are Mounting In Lawrence Co.

Lawrence county took another bite out of its E bond quota today and at noon the Greater New Castle Association office headquarters of the seventh war loan campaign reported a total of $2,092,557 or a 79 per cent score. The total is now over the two million mark and all that remains is about $600,000 to go over quota.

In the individual bond sales the score went to 88 per cent, a total of $3,340,252 or 92 per cent of a quota of $3,680,000, commencing upon the sale yesterday.

At Cascade park headquarters of the bond sales, said the solicitors who have been active here will continue. There are some solicitors that got started late and for that reason will need to put on a little steam. We must put this bond drive over and I feel we will beat the time record.

In the standing in Western Pennsylvania, Lawrence county is still in third place and is in sixth place in the entire state proportionately. These standings can be raised if everybody will get behind the closing days of the campaign.

Gen. Eisenhower Back At Capital

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, allied supreme commander, returned to Washington today from welcoming celebrations in New York, Kansas City and his hometown of Abilene, Kan.

An aide said the general will spend a quiet day with his wife, Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, resting up from his homecoming tour.

Gen. Eisenhower is expected to see Secretary of War Stimson sometime during the day, but the aide said it would be more of a "social call."

Future plans of the general beyond today were not disclosed.

Wheat fields are beginning to ripen in Lawrence county, Pa. News informed.

The Seventh war loan campaign is not yet over. Many more purchases of E bonds are needed here to put the drive over the quota.

Parking was prohibited on both sides of Washington street this morning for several blocks as resurfacing of the street was under way.

While we are experiencing the first hot spell of the summer, listen to this news dispatch from South America today. Argentina's capital, almost without fuel for heating this winter is suffering from one of the most severe cold waves in history. The temperature in Buenos Aires yesterday was 24 degrees Fahrenheit—lowest in 21 years. It was down to 14 degrees at some inland points.

New Castle, along with the remainder of the district got the first semblance of a heat wave this summer over the week end. Bathing pools of the district were really in use yesterday.

BORNEO IS RARE PACIFIC PRIZE

With the rich Lutong oil refinery area in the Brunei section of Borneo, seized during war landings and with Balikpapan on the East Coast, being prized for invasion, the reconquest of this rich Pacific prize is well under way. The above map shows the areas where rubber, gold and diamonds (indicated by symbols) are found in great abundance. Before World War II, the Sandakan plantations provided great quantities of rubber, so did Sarawak and Dutch Borneo. Bandjermasin in the south is rich in all four products. South of Parakan are rich gold fields and gold flecks many a river bottom.

MONTGOMERY GIBSON WEDDING SATURDAY

One of the loveliest of the summer's weddings was the ceremony at her home in Sewickley on Saturday afternoon of Miss Anna Marie Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart Montgomery, of Bank street, Sewickley, and William Young Gibson, of North Mercer street, this city, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clayton Gibson.

The ceremony was performed at 5:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dehart American, pastor of the Sewickley Presbyterian church, in the presence of friends and relatives. The marble mantel of the living room, which was decorated with an arrangement of all white flowers, irises, carnations, and snapdragons, and banded with ferns, formed the setting.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white crepe on thin draped line with a V-neckline and short sleeves. Her headpiece was a halo of white flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses, lilies, and snapdragons.

She was attended by Miss Helen Gibson, sister of the groom, who wore a floor-length two-piece gown of pale aqua crepe trimmed with bands of light cherry rose on the bodice and peplum skirt. She wore an aqua net cap with touches of cherry rose and carried an arm bouquet of white snapdragons and summer flowers in white roses.

Sgt. Charles Montgomery, brother of the bride, served as best man. Also on the wedding procession, before the ceremony, as guests assembled, and during the reception and evening supper which followed the ceremony, as provided in an informal manner.

The wedding supper, the bride and groom were seated at a table in the dining room at 12 o'clock. The table was covered with the best white table cloth and the bride and groom were seated at the head of the table. The guests were seated at round tables in the dining room.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip to the Great Lakes and their return will be a complete July 1 at 404 North Mercer street.

Mrs. Gibson attended William Gibson, son of the bride, who is a member of the U.S. Army, and is serving in the First National Bank, this city.

Question Two On Espionage Charges

PHILADELPHIA, June 25—(INS)

FBI officials today studied results of the questioning over the week-end of two Spaniards arrested in Philadelphia Saturday on charges they had acted as "go-betweens" in espionage activities on behalf of Germany.

The defendants, Pablo M. Lagardiz, seaman, and Emilio L. C. Hernandez, 27, apprentice officer, were taken into custody just before their ship, the freighter Manuel Calvo, was to set sail for Spain.

The men were held for a further hearing Thursday after the U. S. commissioner set bail at $25,000 each. The defendants, who could not speak English, requested counsel for their defense.

If convicted they face death or 30 years in prison.

CONTROL FEEDING FOR YOUNG CALVES

Because a young calf nursing on the mother cow may suck in more milk than the fourth stomach can hold, artificial feeding the first few days would be safer. Unless newborn calves are properly fed they may be sick for months or die.

When the young calf suck, its milk the sucking noids the paunch walls together, with the result 95 per cent of the milk passes directly from the gutlet into the fourth stomach where it can be digested.

On the other hand, when the little calf drinks its milk, 40 per cent of the milk passes into the paunch where it is not digested. The milk that enters the paunch of the young calf rots there, causing digestive disturbances, and sometimes even death.

The sucking action also draws large amounts of saliva from the salivary glands to aid in the digesting of the milk. Practically no saliva is added to the milk when the calf drinks.

The fourth stomach in calves is so small at birth that it can hold only two to four pounds of milk. Since the average cow now gives four times as much milk as needed by her baby cow, the healthy newborn calf can easily over-feed, filling the paunch as well as the fourth stomach.

Milk entering the paunch at this age forms large curds which go undigested, rot and cause the calf to become sick and possibly die. Because it is difficult to determine how much milk the calf will suck from the cow it is safer never to let the calf suck.

Enough milk to fill the fourth stomach can be milked in a clean pail and fed by nursing bucket, floating teat, or a milk bottle with a calf nipple. The fourth stomach of a Jersey calf will hold about a quart, that of a normal Guernsey calf about one and a half quarts, and a Holstein about two quarts.

With this system of feeding the dairyman is assured that the milk will pass directly into the fourth stomach where it can be digested. The calf gets the milk by sucking and is assured of the benefits of the salivary actions. By limiting the amount of milk the calf will not take more milk than its fourth stomach can hold.

DON'T LET MOTHS FEED ON PRECIOUS WOOLENS

No one can afford to feed clothes moths this summer so put away the family woolens with special care.

Moths thrive in warm temperatures and feed on soiled woolens, furs, and furs. The best way to prevent damage from moths is to store the clean woolens in a cool dry place. Many woolen garments can be washed, other must be dry cleaned.

It's a good rule never to store soiled garments for they are harder to clean after being stored and soiled clothing attracts moths. Occasionally a garment may be stored without dry cleaning or washing but in this case it should be hung in the sun and aired thoroughly, brushing under the collar, seam edges, and other concealed places to remove any moth eggs.

Careful wrapping of the clean clothes is essential to keep out moths. A moth miller can crawl through the tightest hole so be sure the paper is not broken and that the edges of the package are sealed tightly. Large tin cans with tight fitting covers are fine for storage. Label all packages to make it easy to find the article you want.

Clean clothes in packages, trunks, boxes, and closets may be further protected from moth damage by the use of naphthalene flakes or balls, or paradichlorobenzene, a crystalline substance. Sprinkle the moth preventive between the layers of clothes and seal the container. Use paradichlorobenzene at the rate of one pound to 100 cubic feet of space. Do not open the boxes or packages until time to wear the clothes.

As moth crystals evaporate they form a gas heavier than air in which moths cannot live. This means it is very important to have the crystals scattered in the clothes and not at the bottom of the box.

The moth crystals that are sprinkled in bureau drawers or put in a closet that's opened often are not effective. Neither are the small holders of moth crystals to hang in the closet. This is because too much air is mixed with the fumes of the crystals and they're not strong enough to do any good.

Falling Leaves Cause Mystery

Pittsburgh area is apparently experiencing the same condition of leaves falling from maple trees as has been evident here for a recent period. It appears to be something of a mystery according to the following from Pittsburgh.

Tree experts in Allegheny county are pulling their heads together to determine what is causing maple trees here to drop their leaves at an alarming rate.

Aspen and residents are forced to use late fall tactics and take up the dead leaves to clear their yards and lawns.

Some tree surgeons attribute the leaf-falling to the "white" spring frosts, others to the extremely wet weather.

Dr. O. R. Jennings of Carnegie Institute says there is no cause for alarm. He says it often happens in wet springs and the symptom may have a name. It is called "June Drop."

In a wet spring the leaves come out "wet" and at first, as they grow, three in the middle of the tree on the reverse enough light and the acid drip off. There's nothing to be alarmed about.

Heart attacks and kidney diseases kill more people than any other known ailments, but because of their action they are considered to be mysterious. Cancer, while not killing a majority of the most dreaded of all diseases.

SPOTLIGHT Of Today

(International News Service)

MAHATMA GANDHI

Mohandas K. Gandhi moved back today into the fringe of the world spotlight he once occupied.

As India's leaders gathered at Simla for a conference on British proposals for broadening native support of Britain's government of India, Gandhi preferred to remain in the background as an adviser.

There is little doubt that the one-time Mahatma's influence will be felt although his announced policy a few years ago of passive resistance against a threatened Japanese invasion alienated many of his fellow countrymen.

The nature of the current conference makes it inevitable that Gandhi will play some role in the deliberations. It was called by Lord Wavell, British viceroy, to consider a British-proposed all-India executive council, a step toward granting of the complete Indian independence long championed by Gandhi.

Gandhi dominated the India political scene for 25 years before his retirement as leader of the Indian national congress in 1934. But younger generations now regard him as too conservative, left-wingers are disappointed at the non-success of his "non-violence" credo and peasants remain hungry as ever.

Whether Gandhi now will emerge again as a force in India's national politics or sink deeper into the oblivion of the last few years may be decided by the outcome of the Simla conference.
